Those made of the season and appears in many attractive forms. Those made of the season and appears in many attractive forms.

waist is mounted on a giove-itted mining, which closes in the center front. The back is fitted smoothly across the shoulders, with slight fullness drawn down in tiny plaits at the belt. The plastron of tucking is permanently attached to the right lining front and fastens invisibly on the left.

8370-Misses' Fancy Shirt Wales. 8235-Misses' Circular Skirt. Waist, 12, 14 and 16 years.

Skirt, 12, 14 and 16 years.

The full fronts are decorated with broad revers, which are formed by the turn-down collar. There is comfortable fullness at the shoulder of the one-piece bishop sleeve, which fits the upper arm closely. The lower edge is gathered and arranged on a narrow linen wristband.

Small darts are employed to fit the stylish skirt, around the waist and hips. The closing is made at the center back, the underlying plait at each side being fiatly pressed to present a plain effect.

Two circular flounces applied at the lower edge give the fashionable flare. The flounces are made with deep hems and finished by a band of insertion to match that used on the shirt waist.

The mode is appropriate for serge, cheviot, Venetian or covert, which may be trimmed with heavy white lace, velvet or silk.

To make the waist for a miss 14 years will require two yards of 35-inch material.

To make the skirt for a miss 14 years will require four and three-fourths yards of 44-inch material. The pattern, No. 823, is cut in sizes for misses 12, 14 and 16 years. Skirt, 12, 14 and 16 years.
